at the capital of Georgia, devoted to Politics, News, Literature, and the best interests of our whole country.

In Politics the New Era will maintain the principles of the National Republican Party, It will rally around the banner of a restored Union the intelligent masses of the American people, and battle manfully for the maintenance of the proper rights and privileges of all, at every hazard, without fear or favor.

On the conservation of the true principles of Republicanism depends the welfare of the American people, and the perpetuation of national independence. To the attainment of this great end the New Era will labor, relying for its support upon the honor, the intelligence, and patriolism of American freemen.

The material, social, and intellectual interests of Georgia and the South will receive its earnest and devoted attention, and nothing shall be omitted which can add to the interest and value of its publication, and entitle it to the rank of a first class newspaper.

The New Era will be the only Republican paper in Georgia, and will be the official organ of the United States Government and of the national Republican party of the Union. Its circulation will be large, and its prominent position will at once entitle it to the consideration of merchants and business men in all sections of our common country as one of the best advertising mediums in the South.

THE NEW YORK TIMES.

DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY. THE NEW YORK DAILY TIMES Only Republican Journal In the City of New York.

The high character which the Daily Times has borne in the past is a sufficient guarantee for its conduct in the future. It will continue to advocate the cause of the public, without reference to the interests of individuals. No expense will be spared in the maintenance of its position as the foremost of American journals. It is the best daily family newspaper in the country. It has the latest news, the best foreign correspondence, and the largest staff of home correspondents. All objectionable news and advertisements are rigidly excluded.

THE WEEKLY TIMES.

The Weekly Times is undoubtedly the best paper for the farmer, for the mechanic, and for all who live in localities which are served only by weekly mails. It contains, in addition to editorial comments on current topics, an excellent condensation of the news of the week; the most important events, both home and foreign, are revived at length, and a targe quantity of matter is given especially interesting to the farmer and mechanic. Its market reports are the fullest and most accurate in the country. Terms—$2 per annum.

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD. A RECORD OF

Facts, Narrating the Hardships, Hair-Breadth Escapes, and Death Struggles of the Slaves in their Efforts for Freedom.

BY WILLIAM STILL,

For many years connected with the Anti Slavery Office in Philadelphia, and Chairman of the Acting Vigilant Committee of the Philadelphia Branch of the Underground Railroad. Illustrated with 70 fine Engravings by Bensell, Schell, and others, and Portraits from Photographs from Life.

From a great number of cordial letters commending the Underground Railroad, the Author selects a few brief extracts only from eminent friends of Freedom who have examined the work.

Work.

Thave examined it with a deep and thrilling interest. It is a most important portion of Anti-Slavery history. Its reliableness, moreover, cannot be called in question. It is a book for every household.

From S. P. Chase, Chief Justice of U. S. Supreme Court:

No one probably has had equal opportunities with yourself of listening to the narratives of fugitive slaves. No one will repeat them more truthfully, and no stories can be more fraught with interest than theirs.

From Hon. Henry Witson, Vice President:
You have done a good work. This story of the heroic conduct of fugitives of oppression, and of the devotion of their friends, will be read with deep interest, especially by the old friends of the slave in the stern struggle through which we have passed. I hope your labors will be rewarded by a grateful public.

From Hon. Charles Summer.

THE WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

The weekly, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are as follows:

It is a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full less moment, and start the laboratory of the laboratory of the laboratory of the day will be found in it, condensed the laboratory of the laboratory of the laboratory of the day will be found in it, condensed the laboratory of the laboratory of the laboratory of the slave in the stern struggle through which we have passed. I hope your labors will be read with the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are still be read with the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will we hope, give it many thousands more, are still be read with the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are stolled reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will we reasons which have already given it fifty thousands subscribers, and which will we reasons which have already given it fifty thousands subscribers, and which will be reasons which have already given it fifty thousands subscribers, and which will be reasons which have already given it fifty thousands subscribers, and which will be reasons which have already given it fifty thousands are subscribers, and which will be reasons which have already given it fifty thousands are subscriber

From Hen. Charles Summer:

The Underground Railroad has performed its part, but it must always be remembered gratefully, as one of the peculiar institutions of our country. I cannot think of it without a throbbing heart.

You do well to commemorate those associated with it by service or by benefit—the saviours and the saved.

From Wm. H. Furness, D.D.:
Having read this record of "The Undergound Rahroad," I can only say that it is a work of extraordinary interest and of great value as an illustration of the terrible despolism, which a little while ago reigned over us all, and which is now (thank heaven!) no more.

From John G. Whittier:
The book is more interesting than any romance.
It will be of permanent value to the historian of the country during the anti-slavery struggle.
I cheerfully commend it to the public favor.

From Gen. O. O. Howard:
You could not prepare a work that would afford more instruction and interest to me than a detailed history of the operations of the so called "Underground Railroad." I am delighted at the examination I have been permitted to give the proof, and think thousands will rise up to call you blessed for your faithful record of our "legalized crime."

From Hon. Henry C. Carey:
Mr. Still's work appears to me to be one of great interest, and I most heartily unite in recommending it to the public attention.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is most ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—cannot but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are to-day making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good natured mentor.—The Nation, N.
